of Gotham, Batman was on patrol, as usual. Suddenly, he spotted an unusual figure – it was Sunep, a seemingly ordinary guy, casually munching on a bag of chips.

  Batman approached, squaring up. "Who are you, and what are you doing here?"

  Sunep glanced up, unimpressed. "Just having a snack. You want some?"

  Batman declined and growled, "Gotham is my territory. Time for you to leave." Sunep shrugged and stood up. "Alright, but I challenge you to a duel first." He reached into his bag and, instead of pulling out a weapon, he whipped out... a remote control.

  Batman was confused. "What are you going to do with that?"

  Sunep grinned, pressing a button. Suddenly, all the lights in Gotham went out, and a loud, squeaky rendition of "La Cucaracha" blasted through the Batmobile speakers.

  Batman covered his ears, struggling to turn it off. Meanwhile, Sunep pulled out a massive, fluffy pillow and whacked Batman, who, off balance from the noise, tripped and fell into a nearby dumpster.

  Dusting off his hands, Sunep chuckled, "Well, that was easy." And with that, he strolled away, leaving the Dark Knight temporarily defeated by a bag of chips and a pillow.
